Declaration (to be signed by you, the employee)

I declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the statements made on this application form, and any additional information supplied as part of this application, are full, true and correct. I agree that the terms and conditions of the plan issued to my employer will bind me and any of my family members included in this application, and I will read the members' terms and conditions document when I receive it.

I understand that if, in the 12 months immediately before any holiday or business trip, anyone included in this application has received in-patient or day-patient treatment, or has a condition that still needs further investigations or hospital treatment, or is suffering from any heart, stroke, cancer or psychiatric related conditions, or has been diagnosed with a terminal condition, then written confirmation must be obtained from our GP or specialist that they are medically fit to travel.

I consent to PruHealth and its agents using the information that I supply, which may include health information that is sensitive information under the Data Protection Act 1998, for the purposes shown in the data protection summary below.

I confirm that, for the purposes of the Act, I have the authority of any of my family named on this application to consent on their behalf to their personal data being processed, and by signing this application I agree that PruHealth may use their personal data for the purposes described in the data protection notice. I will give the data protection notice enclosed with my membership pack to any family members included on this application who are old enough to understand it.

Data Protection

Data Protection Notice – You will receive a copy of our data protection notice in your membership pack. Please show it to any family members on the plan old enough to understand it, as it applies to their personal data also.

Use of personal information – Information we receive in connection with the plan will become part of the data held by PruHealth in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We will handle this information on a confidential basis and use it to administer the plan, process claims, for underwriting and pricing purposes and to maintain management information for business analysis.

Disclosure – We may disclose personal information, under the protection of a contract, to our agents or service providers to administer the plan, to those involved with your treatment or care, and to any adviser or independent intermediary appointed to act on your employer's behalf. You may want to ask your employer whether an adviser or an independent intermediary has been appointed. Your data may be processed by service providers in a country outside the European Economic Area.

Claims correspondence – Claims correspondence will be addressed to you, the insured employee. If a family member does not wish us to correspond with you in relation to their claim, and they are aged 18 or over, they should take out a separate plan in their own name.

Telephone calls – To continuously improve our service to members, your calls may be recorded and monitored.

Keeping you informed – PruHealth, our group of companies and our business associates, service providers and agents may use your personal information to inform you of other services and products that may be of interest, either through telemarketing or mail, or for general market research. If you would prefer not to receive details of other products, please either tick this box or write to the Data Protection Co-ordinator at PruHealth, PO Box 28836, Edinburgh, EH15 1WQ.

Obtaining a copy of your personal information – If you would like a copy of the personal information we keep about you, please write to the Data Protection Co-ordinator at PruHealth, and ask for a 'Data subject access form'. Please note there is a £10 charge for this service.
